VIII. NEW BUSINESS

Music Director's Reports

Choir Director: Mr. Scalf

We just wrapped up our wreath sales; 40% of what was earned from each student sales goes towards their Student account. In total profits we raised well over $1300.00 in profits. Great job to the students that sold wreaths on this successful fundraiser. The wreath pick up will be on December 2nd at 3:00 pm.

Moving onto the Veterans Celebration breakfast at 7:30 am. on November 8th. Students have a call time of 7:00 am. and will be performing at 7:45 am. This is an exciting event, we will have the Lunch choir A and Lunch Choir B students performing together for the first time so it's important that they make that 7:00 am call time.

Saturday November 9th, is the ILMEA District 1 Festival, Students are responsible for providing their own transportation to and from Elmhurst University. Choir students are required to be there by 8:45 am to give time for rehearsal. Choir robes will be worn but they should dressed in appropriate dress attire underneath. No need for purchasing the celebratory placque, one has already been purchased for every Evergreen Park student performing.

The Musical theater concert will be this Sunday November 10th at 3:00 pm. Big thanks to the Boosters on the final fittings on the remaining concert gowns.

Madrigals - Rehearsal this week will change from Monday to Wednesday 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm. After this week it will go back to the regular Monday night schedule. Please keep up to date with the Google calendar, all changes will show on this calendar. We have a performance coming up on December 4th at OSF Hospital and December 10th at Bethel Bible church during the school day; permission slips should have already been received for these events.

They will also be performing December 7th at 8:30 am. for Breakfast with the Grinch, Then Breakfast with Santa at 9:30am, The Dickens fest at the Community Center at 3:00 pm. and then later in the evening at 5:00 pm. for Cocoa and Carols at the High School.

**Be on the look out for a link to purchase tickets for the Cocoa and Carols; This is a paid event.**

The last performance for the Madrigals will be December 20th at the Chamber of Commerce.

Band Director: Mr. Ken Kazin

A Heart felt Thank you for the gifts presented at the sound of the Stadium concert, It was not expected but was a beautiful surprise. Our Marching season was not what we expected as far as accolades and awards but I'm proud of the work and dedication that the kids gave to the season. Last time the Marching Band performed for this season was at the Trick or Treat bash to help bring in more foot traffic and I felt they did a great job. We have a few repairs to get to from our season but will ready in time for next year. Puffs play went great! I'm thankful to the Boosters for the play on snacks for the concession stand. Concert band is now in full swing, and going well. Our first concert band performance is pinned for December 11th; Please make sure that your Band student is practicing their material on a nightly basis. Auditions are soon underway for the Musical Cinderella and Pit musicians as well as solo and ensemble. Then onto January and February events; Evergreen Park will be hosting the SSC Band Conference on the 15th of January. This will be an all day event amongst all of our conference schools with a closing concert at 6:30 pm. in the Large Gym. Winter Guard has officially started Kylie is working with them on Tuesdays and Thursdays during Zero Block hour and Their competition schedule is posted on the Google calender as well as our Band Website.

Activities Director: Mrs. Amy Kazin

I'm grateful to all the support that the parents give to the department during our busiest time of the year, your help does not go unnoticed. I'm very proud to have 11 students representing us at Elmhurst on Saturday. The Tickets are now on sale for Cinderella our next musical happening in February; For our character luncheon tickets are on sale now.
